

Marc Monyek and Joon Song

Ernst & Young

Marc is a senior manager in EY's Global Treasury Services practice. Marc joined EY in 2014 and has provided leading advice to CFOs and treasurers of government agencies, universities and companies with revenues of $1-105 billion.

Assessments and implementations have included global cash management, cash collections and pooling, debt and investment management, financial risk management and currency risk management. Prior to joining EY was Senior Director Global Funding at McDonald's Corporation and deputy Chief Investment Officer and Secretary of the McDonald's Corporation Profit Sharing and Savings Plan and an advisor to the McDonald's Owner Insurance Trust Investment Board

Joon is a manager in EY's Global Treasury Services practice. His experience includes providing treasury advisory services to a variety of global clients in private sector, consumer products, retail, automotive, and energy industries. His areas of experience include, but are not limited to, the following: treasury management assessments, financial risk management, treasury technology, treasury organizational design, cash & liquidity management, treasury operating models, cash flow forecasting, bank relations, corporate finance, treasury accounting and reporting, control framework, governance and financial statement assurance.