

Valarie Maxwell – Biography

Valarie Maxwell is the Director of Budget and Management at Midwestern State University. She has over 28 years of experience at MSU and plays a pivotal role in campus financial planning. She recently served as the Project Director for the transition into the Banner software system for the university and serves on multiple committees across campus.

Valarie is a graduate of Midwestern State University where she holds both a Bachelor's and Master's Degree in Business Administration.