

Jennifer Morelli

Principal

Grant Thornton

T: +1 215 701 8899

E: jennifer.morelli@us.gt.com

Qualifications

Jennifer is Grant Thornton's Talent and Culture practice leader. She has spent her career advising clients across a broad range of industries on how to handle the 'people side of change' through organizational, process and technology transformation. Jennifer drives value by tailoring approaches and tactics that enable strategy through disciplined execution, while minimizing organizational disruption and driving sustainability.

Experience

Jennifer's consulting experience includes enabling and preparing employees and various stakeholders to adopt and embrace new ways of thinking and behaving to support successful transformations, implementations and/or integrations. She has a wealth of experience leading initiatives involving end user adoption, leadership and organizational alignment, communications, process improvement and training strategy and development.

Professional qualifications and memberships

- Certified Six Sigma Green Belt
- Certified Prosci ADKAR Change Management Trainer
- Certified Prosci ADKAR Change Management Practitioner
- Certified LaMarsh Global Managed Change Practitioner
- Adjunct Professor at Temple University's Fox School of Business