

Angie Wright
Vice President for Finance and Administration
Angelo State University

Angie Wright currently serves as Vice President for Angelo State University. She has been in this position since May 2014 after serving 1 year as Interim Vice President. Prior to the appointment, she held various positions at ASU including Associate Vice President for Finance & Administration, Assistant Vice President for Finance & Administration, Budget Director, Manager of Business Services, and Payroll Coordinator/Director. Her current responsibilities range from finance to facility operations and include IT, HR and University police.

Angie is an alum of Angelo State University.