

Charmaine Mazzantini
Associate General Counsel
Texas State University System

Charmaine Mazzantini has been with the Texas State University System Office of General Counsel since April 2017, serving in the capacity as Associate General Counsel on the Texas State University campuses in San Marcos and Round Rock. She is a graduate of Texas A&M University in College Station and received her Juris Doctor degree from South Texas College of Law in Houston.

Prior to joining TSUS, Charmaine worked in the Office of General Counsel at the Texas Education Agency, in the educator quality enforcement division, as counsel for TEA charged with enforcing the code of ethics for certified educators across the state of Texas. Prior to that, Charmaine worked in private practice as in-house counsel for both insurance companies and as plaintiff counsel in Texas and South Carolina.

Charmaine is a lifelong Texan, who along with her husband, Matt, stay busy raising their four children in Driftwood, Texas.
